Our Championship Show Judges for 2019

Dawn Banks (Forgebanks) – Dogs

I grew up with Alsatians (as they were known back in my day) as the family pets, but my first encounter with a Beagle was as a teenager, when my mother brought a young puppy home after his elderly owner was no longer able to keep him. What a baptism of fire he turned out to be! A very naughty dog indeed, he was subsequently taken along to our local obedience class where we were told "It is impossible to train a Beagle". He became a great family member and after he died my mother and I visited Crufts, where I fell in love with "Too Darn Hot for Tragband". Two Beagles joined the family in 1986, a dog from the Dialynne kennel and a bitch from Duxfordham Kennels. And so our first trepid steps into the world of showing began, and the Forgebanks affix applied for.

Three generations and many years down the line, a homebred tan/white girl, Forgebanks Fantom was campaigned to a CC and a RCC in 1999. She went on to produce two litters for us, both times producing all boys. Of these, "Hornblower" had a great show career as a youngster gaining his JW, and younger half brother "Kinsman" had a modicum of success in the ring. During this time I became interested in judging and in 2001 had my first appointment at a local Open show. Several more litters and many more years down the line, we bought in two outside bred bitches to show and breed on from. Ours is a very small kennel and to date I am campaigning a young girl very lightly.

I was very fortunate to have been offered the partnership of a super tan/white dog that was closely related to our lines, he was campaigned by his other "Mum" to a CC, and so with the required minimum of 3 stud book numbers I was able to work my way up the judging ladder to award CC's.

My first appointment to award Challenge Certificates came in 2015 when I judged at the West Mercia Beagle Club Championship Show. I am very much looking forward to judging the Dogs at the 2019 Beagle Club Championship Show in June.

Jen Davies (Seevad) – Bitches

I bought my first Beagle in 1977, from Joni & Noel Jobson (Glenivy), and after being interviewed to see if we were ok, to own one of their pups, we bought a bitch for only £75, Glenivy Sanddancer.

I decided to take her to training class, for Obedience, silly me they also ran a ring craft class, at the same hall. A well respected gentleman, who I learned many years later, was also a Judge, said to me, you should show her, so thought I'd give it a go. Well the first open show, which was benched, I had never seen so many Beagles at one time, and we came 3rd behind Jean Westren Deanery the Dickler. That was it the bug bit big time, and my love and passion for our wonderful breed began,

I registered my affix Seevad, in 1980 with my first litter, but as time went on, I tried to improve on everything I kept out of a litter.

I have only had a handful of litters, But I bought a granddaughter of Beacott Buckthorn, from Jean & Wal Westren, (Deanery), she was a lovely broken Tri, Deanery Decorem, and she produced my two home bred Champions, the first Ch Seevad High Society was by Deanery Draper. She was a lovely T/W, with the most beautiful head. The second litter by Forster Stormpasture Kopyright, was my princess Seevad High Fashion. She and her handsome brother Rupert, Seevad High Lite, loved the show ring.

I awarded my first set of CCs in 2003, and have had the privilege, of doing so at the breed clubs and general championship shows, on many occasions. I have also had the privilege, of being invited to judge overseas, in many countries. On an appointment in Australia, Brian Foster, and I met Trumpy, Australian Supreme then U.K. Ch Orobay Graceful Triumph. After a few days Rhonda Telfer, his breeder approached us to ask if we would like him in partnership, for 12 months, you all know the answer, then it was a whirlwind campaigning him to his UK Title.

I feel since I bought that stubborn naughty Beagle pup in 1977, I have enjoyed every year, being with Beagles.

I would like to thank The Beagle Club, for the Honour, of inviting, me to judge bitches this Year 2019, and hope we all have an enjoyable day, and as I always say, win or lose, I always used to take the best Beagle home.
