GUIDANCE NOTES

- 1) All payments must be made in pounds sterling, either by credit card or cheque drawn against a UK bank account or by Euro-Cheque.
- 2) All applications must be submitted with a three generation pedigree for the dog, issued by the Kennel Club with which the dog is registered.
- 3) Dogs now registered overseas which were originally registered with The Kennel Club do not require an ATC since we already have the information needed. Owners of these dogs should declare the original KC number where the ATC number should be placed on all entry forms. Owners of dogs which have subsequently gained the title of FCI International Champion or a National Champion title should inform The Kennel Club supplying a copy of the appropriate documentation from the issuing Kennel Club, if they wish to use the title.
- 4) Please note that the Kennel Club only accepts National or International titles. Titles such as Youth Winner, World Champion, Junior Champion etc. are not recognised by The Kennel Club. As space is limited, it may not be possible to include all titles.
- 5) On acceptance, the owner of a dog will receive an ATC (Authority to Compete) number which must be quoted on all entry forms and on all correspondence.
- 6) No dogs with cropped ears are eligible to compete at any Kennel Club licensed event.
- 7) Prior to exhibition, permission must be sought from the General Committee of The Kennel Club to exhibit any dog which has undergone an operation to alter its natural conformation.
- 8) Dogs which have been spayed or castrated are permitted to be exhibited at KC licensed events. However, the owner of the dog must inform The Kennel Club prior to exhibition of the date of the operation, the name of the Veterinary Surgeon and the practice where the operation was carried out.
- 9) PLEASE ALLOW UP TO 28 DAYS FOR PROCESSING. YOU MAY NOT ENTER ANY COMPETITION IN THE UK UNTIL YOU HAVE RECEIVED YOUR ATC NUMBER.
